

FEMININE DON'TS.

Don't try to keep your hair in curl.

Don't carry an open parasol on the shady side of the street.

Don't tell another girl about your eating seven dishes of ice cream one day last summer.

Don't, above all things, bore poor, overworked city people with stories about your vacation fun.

Don't chase after departing cable cars. If you are in need of exercise take it in a more becoming manner.

Don't drink iced fluids. If you do you'll soon imagine that there's a steam boiler and a few laundry fires in your stomach.

Don't cling so tenaciously to shirt waists. The stiff collars are always grinding ridges in your neck and making you long for the ability to say words that only men are privileged to use.—Chicago Record.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

Democratic Territorial Convention.

In accordance with a resolution of the democratic territorial central committee, adopted at a meeting held in Santa Fe on the 11th day of August, 1894, a convention of the democratic party of the territory is hereby called to meet at Las Cruces, N. M., on the 11th day of September, 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for delegate to the house of representatives of the 56th congress of the United States.

In accordance with said resolution each county of the territory is entitled to one delegate to said convention for each 125 votes cast for Hon. Antonio Joseph, as delegate to congress in 1892, and an additional delegate for each fraction of the unit of 125 amounting to fifty or more. Under this apportionment the several counties of the territory are entitled to representation as follows:

Counties.	No. of Delegates.
Bernalillo	15
Chaves	2
Colfax	6
Donna Ana	10
Eddy	3

Rio Arriba	10
San Juan	2
San Miguel	21
Santa Fe	10
Sierra	4
Socorro	8
Taos	8
Union	3
Valencia	1

Total

In further accord with said resolution the democratic central committee of the various counties of the territory are hereby instructed to call county conventions for the election of delegates according to said apportionment and to insert in the call therefor an invitation to all persons or organizations, without regard to former party affiliations, who intend to support the democratic nominee for delegate, to participate in such conventions, declaring such persons eligible to election as delegates to the territorial convention hereby called. Said county committees are requested to make all arrangements for county conventions in ample time and in accordance with the practice of the party.

THOS. P. GABLE,
Secretary.

J. H. CRIST,
Chairman.
